“ I wanted to add my condolences to the family and friends of Fred Surcey. No matter how long or short a time we have someone with us we still feel that pain when they pass. That is why the scripture in Rev 21st chapter is so comforting. It tells us that God will do away with death, pain and sorrow such as we now face and bring about a righteous new world where we can have peace and happiness with our loved ones. May that thought bring you comfort. Sally Grimes
